

'Ruby' Terrace House

30 Alfred St
Newcastle East

'Ruby' is a lovingly restored two-storey terrace house sleeping up to six. Built in the 1880s, renovated in the 1990s, it is an open & light terrace maintaining its character with a beachy modern feel. Ruby is situated in the heart of historic Newcastle East. Close to the emerging dining scene it is approximately 500m from both the beach and foreshore. A pleasant walk to Honeysuckle along the working harbour leads to more potential dining experiences. Its prime location makes it the perfect place for a holiday or to unwind after a busy day at your work event. Featuring: • Upstairs Bed 1 with king bed (or 2 singles) & ceiling fan • French doors to front balcony & café setting • Bed 2 with queen bed & wall fan • Opens to back balcony with another cafe setting • Spacious landing with single bed & trundle • Bathroom with full size bath & decadent shower • Downstairs huge living room, separate dining room opening to courtyard garden on sunny north side • Galley kitchen with all mod cons, dishwasher • Laundry • Gas BBQ, outdoor table setting & beach shower.
